The other, after carefully depositing his plate on the floor, dropped his gloves into his vest pocket, made a great attempt to tuck his cap of coffee with his knife and fork, and then resolutely set about picking his teeth with the nut-cracker. After some complicated maneuvering, they bowed themselves out as best they could—but the last one, having mistaken the door and gone down cellar instead of out doors, was found this morning reposing complacently in a coal-hole.

In fact, New York went to bed last night with a huge brick in its municipal hat, and as the legitimate effect of such indiscretion, has awoke this morning with a tremendous corporate headache—"Young America" to-day, for once, is unstarched in appearance; and in deportment, meek as the sucking dove.

Yours, with the compliments of the season.

TUESDAY, Jan. 2, 1855.

The Board met pursuant to adjournment. Present, same as yesterday.

Wm. R. Montgomery, Chairman, having left the Board for a short time on business of importance, on motion of Mr. Baker, James H. Thorne was appointed Chairman, pro tem. On motion, it was resolved, that at 1 o'clock P. M. to-day, and examine into the condition of the Poor House, for the purpose of ascertaining whether it is sufficiently large to accommodate the paupers.

After auditing several accounts, the Board, took a recess until 1 o'clock, P. M.

At 1 o'clock, the Board convened again. Present, the same as in the morning, except Mr. Montgomery.

Went into Committee of the whole, in accordance with resolution in the forenoon, to examine Poor-House, after which, proceeded to audit accounts.

After much time spent in adjusting accounts; on motion, it was resolved that Mr. Patterson be allowed to occupy the Court Room to-morrow evening, for the purpose of instructing a class in vocal music.

On motion, the Board adjourned to meet to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

WEDNESDAY, Jan. 3, 1855.

The Board met pursuant to adjournment. Present, the same as yesterday. The following resolution was presented, and on motion, laid on the table:

Resolved, That the Superintendent of the Poor be authorized to have erected, an addition to the County Poor-House, consisting of a wing on the east side thereof, of such plan and dimensions as they may adopt. Provide that the expense of the same shall not exceed Five Hundred Dollars; and that they keep a correct account of the expense of said building, and report the same to the Board of Supervisors at their next meeting.

On motion, it was unanimously resolved, that a Committee be appointed to enquire into the expediency of selling the County farm; and that they be authorized to advertise for proposals for the purchase of the farm. Also that they ascertain where, and upon what terms the County can procure a suitable place for the County poor; and that the Committee report to the Board at its March session.

The Chair appointed Messrs. Thorne, Gates, and Whitney, said Committee.

Mr. Brewster presented the following petition:

To the Hon. Board of Supervisors of Hillsdale County: The undersigned would respectfully request, that the County Court Room may be used for the purpose of holding a course of Lectures on Literary and Scientific subjects the present season.

Signed, H. L. HALL, and others.

Mr. Kenyon offered the following:

Resolved, That the use of the Court Room be granted for the purpose of delivering a course of Lectures on Literary and Scientific subjects, agreeable to the petition of Henry L. Hall and others; and that the use of the Court Room be also allowed for religious worship when not otherwise occupied—under the superintendence of the Sheriff.

Mr. Whitney moved to amend by inserting the word "Catholic" before religious. Amendment lost. Ayes and nays were called for, on the resolution. The chairman called for division of the question: when on motion of Mr. Brewster, it was laid on the table.

The special Committee, appointed on Monday, to settle with the County Treasurer, having completed said settlement, reported as follows:

To the Board of Supervisors of Hillsdale County: The undersigned, special Committee appointed to examine the accounts of the Treasurer of said County, submit the following report. Having examined the vouchers for receipts and expenditures, presented by said Treasurer, we find them to agree with the report herewith presented; and recommend that it be accepted.

WILLIAM STODDARD, W. W. BREWSTER, C. STIMSON.

On motion, the report of Committee was accepted, and the Committee discharged. The accompanying report of County Treasurer, referred to, is as follows, viz:

To the Hon. Board of Supervisors in and for the County of Hillsdale. Gentlemen: I herewith transmit to you a statement of the receipts and disbursements, for the County during the year 1854, all of which is respectfully submitted.

J. W. FRFNCH,
